SURGEONS IN SESSION

Virginia Medical Society Welcomed by the Governor and Mayor Last Night.

FIGHT ON REORGANIZATION

Addresses Last Night Interesting-The Attendance Is Large.

The thirty-fourth annual session of the Medical Society of Virginia convened in the ball room at the Masonic Temple last night at 8 o'clock when the opening meeting was held.

The meeting was called to order by the president of the society, Dr. Joseph A. Gale, of Roanoke, who introduced Rev. Dr. W. J. Young, who offered an appropriate prayer. Governor Montague delivered an acklress of welcome on behalf of the State. He dwelt at length upon the growth and advangement of the medical proven and advancement_of_the medical profession during the past fifty years. Mayor McCarthy delivered a graceful welcome on bhealf of the city of Richmond. In the course of his remarks he said: "I welcome you to the home of McGuire, Snead, Coleman and many others of your profession, who, in their day were lights in our community." The Mayor were lights in our community. The Mayor was warmly received, and made it most favorable impression upon fits hearers. He was followed by Dr. George Ben Johnston, who delivered an address of welcome for the profession of Richmond, His words were well chosen and brough out some beautiful thought. His address held the attention of the entire body, and when he concluded he was applauded heartily,

Dr. C. M. Branch, of Roanoke, and formerly of this city responded to the address of welcome in behalf of the society, and truly his oratory held his listeners all but spellbound.

Dr. Gordon's Address.

The annual address to the public and profession by Dr. William S. Gordon was then delivered, and he took as his subject "The Attitude of the Physician and Patient to the Science and Art of Medicine." He treated the matter in brilliant style.

cine." He treated the matter in brilliant style.

Dr. Joseph H, Gale, president of the society, delivered his annual address, which was a brilliant one and was greatly enjoyed by those present.

When the addresses had been completed the report from the Nomination Committee was heard and one hundred and eighty new members were received into the society, the largest number that have been taken into the organization at any time since its foundation.

The question of settling a date for the discussion of the much talked of organization plan, which will eventually cause a warm contest, was then taken up, and a warm contest, was then taken up, and decided that the matter should be taken up at the morning session to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Reports from the secretary and treas-urer were heard, and these were gratity-ing to the members. When these wec-concluded, the meeting adjourned to conconcluded, the meeting adjourned to con-vene this morning at 10 o'clock and the report of clinical cases will then be heard. At 11 o'clock subjects for gen-eral discussion will be taken up and pa-pers will be read by Dr. Charles R. Grandy, of Norfolk, Va.; Dr. J. S. Davis, Charlottesville, Va., and Dr. Ennion G. Williams, of this city.

We buy a bunch of books,
And then we buy a nice golf cap,
Improving Willie's looks.

The next thing that we have to do
Is to get some slates and blanks,
For which we cannot pay the man
With our profoundest thanks.

There's nothing left for wood and coal, There's nothing left for grub, But Wille's lessons must be learned— The price—uye, there's the rub.
